Learn about your right to make life choices

About Easy Read

Easier words with pictures to help explain some ideas.

Your right to make life choices

A woman smiling with a speech bubble that says "I can make choices".

You have the right to make choices about your life.

Our Site is a website made for women and girls with disability.

One section of Our Site is about your health care rights.

You have the right to the health care you need.

You also have the right to make choices.

You can get support to make decisions.

You have the right to make choices about your life.

Our Site is a website made by and for women, girls and gender diverse people with disability.

One section of the Our Site website says your rights about:

- making choices
- health care
- housing

- money
- healthy living
- asking for support
- the NDIS.

In Australia, everyone has the right to get the health care they need. Everyone can get support to make decisions.

We trust this resource

We trust this resource because it is:

- Made with people with intellectual disability
- Made to help, not for profit
- Made by people who know a lot about the topic
- Made in Australia

We've checked this resource, and you can follow our guide to know if health information is true and right for you.

This resource was made by

Women With Disabilities Australia

Women With Disabilities Australia (WWDA) is the national Disabled People's Organisation (DPO) and National Women's Alliance (NWA) for women, girls, and gender

Gender is how a person feels about being a boy, a girl, both, or neither. It can be different from the sex they were given at birth.

-diverse people with disabilities in Australia.

- Visit