

A guide to government supports for young children with disability or slower development

The National Early Childhood Program (NECP) supports children in Australia with disability or slower development. This guide says that the NECP offers:

- support for children
- support for family and carers
- online information and resources through the Raising Children Network.

The guide has links to help you access support.

The guide has some hard language. You could read it with a family member or support worker.

We trust this resource

We trust this resource because it is:

- Made to help, not for profit
- Made by people who know a lot about the topic
- Made in Australia

We've checked this resource, and you can follow our guide to know if health information is true and right for you.

This resource was made by

Australian Government Department of Health, Disability and Ageing

The Department of Health, Disability and Ageing works to get better health and wellbeing

Wellbeing is how you feel in your body and mind. It includes your health, your feelings, and how you manage everyday life.

for all Australians, now and for future generations. It is part of the Australian Government.

- Visit website