Rare disease resources for people who speak different languages

This page has helpful links for people from different cultures and language backgrounds who are living with a rare disease.

This includes people who:

- speak a language other than English at home
- have different cultures, beliefs or traditions.

The links on this page are not only about rare diseases. They also cover other topics that may be important for you and your family.

This collection can help you:

- learn more about rare diseases
- find support and services
- know where to start if you need help.

We trust this resource

We trust this resource because it is:

- Made to help, not for profit
- Made by people who know a lot about the topic
- Made in Australia

We've checked this resource, and you can follow our guide to know if health information is true and right for you.

This resource was made by

Rare Awareness Rare Education (RARE) Portal

The Rare Awareness Rare Education (RARE) Portal is Australia’s growing national resource for rare diseases. It has an online library of current, reliable information about rare diseases.

- Visit